

High Art in Reno.

The Gazette, while defending its course in acting as stakeholder for a lot of rowing pugilists, remarks as follows:

From the golden days of Greece when the Olympian, Nemean and Pythian athletic games were the delight of the populace, through the days of ancient Rome, when the Imperial City sustained its college of athletes, to the present time, the art and science of self-defence has been an honored and honorable part of the curriculum of athletic culture. That the people of the United States so continue to regard it is amply evidenced by the triumphant tours of John L. Sullivan, the world's champion, through the cities both great and small, of its vast territory.

It may not be out of place to remark that the pugilistic combination got their dodgers printed at the Gazette office.

CANDELARIA.—Col. W. J. Sutherland, D. H. Jackson and ex-Governor Kinkadee passed through to Candelaria last Saturday night. Mr. Jackson is the newly appointed Superintendent of the Holmes property, and we are informed that Governor Kinkadee will act as the resident Secretary. On the arrival of the train at Candelaria, bonfires were built, and a glowing reception tendered the new-comers. Active operations are already begun at the mine, and it is believed a large force will soon be put on. The mill at Belleville is undergoing repairs, preparatory to being put to work on ore. There is a bright ray of sunshine hovering over our sister city, and Hawthorne rejoices there at. Col. Sutherland is the general manager of the property, and it is due to his indefatigable energy that Candelaria emerges from the slough of despond into which she has lately fallen.—Hawthorne Bulletin.

NO MORE FEW RENT.—The California papers have begun discussing the sex of angels. The heft of the argument appears to lie on the side of the male sex. From our youth up we have been wedded to the idea that the angels of heaven were a collection of lovely females, clothed in diaphanous garments that only half concealed the beautiful forms beneath. The news that the angelic band consist only of men upsets all our previous ideas of the heavenly home, and makes us feel that our exemplary life during the past 40 years has been led under the shadow of a mighty delusion. We have concluded to give up our pow in church.

Moral Reno is shocked by the attitude taken by the Reno Gazette, which defends the brutal glove matches as a civilizing influence, and compares the meeting of two ordinary sluggers to the old Olympian games of ancient Greece. We hope the people will not condemn the Gazette too hastily, as Mr. Bragg, who runs the morals of the paper, is away, and when he returns the wild and giddy local reporter will be severely disciplined. Just now the paper is too shocking for anything.

A preacher in Southern California has brought suit for slander against a number of people in his parish and received several thousands and dollars damages. It transpired in the trial that the stories circulated about him were all wholesale lies, invented by gossiping old hens in the parish and that they were malicious and defamatory. If preachers were in the habit of bring such creatures to the bar of the courts, there would be less of such work going on.

The most intemperate language indulged in by any newspaper in this State is found in the Reno Free Lance, a temperance organ. The bible says "be temperate in all things" and this admonition should include the use of expletives as well as liquor.

The principle that we go on.

WE go on the principle that the better we are able to please our customers the faster the business will grow. It is already the largest of its kind on the Coast, employing from two hundred and fifty to three hundred and twenty-five people.

There are other things besides honest dealing which have made the business grow. The goods come direct from the factories and leading wholesalers of Europe and America, and that helps. Goods are sold for cash only, and that helps. There is but one price; all customers are treated alike; people have learned to know this, and that helps. We are always willing to take back what does not suit (it's a sort of guarantee of our faith in whatever we sell), and if mistakes are made are eager to correct them at any expense of time or money; people like such methods, and that helps.

This store is not perfect by any means, but it is a great deal better store than it was last year, or the years before that; and we trust that it will be better next year than it is this.

Send for large Illustrated Catalogue (free) giving full information about our goods and prices, with directions how to order; also samples of goods by the yard.
